Featured Speakers

Wm. Breck Seiniger began his practice of law in Idaho in the late 1970's. He is an honors graduate of the University of Massachusetts at Amherst, and the University of Idaho College of Law. Breck has focused his practice of law on personal injury, workers' compensation, employment discrimination, and sexual harassment. He is also known for his special interest in the area of courtroom technology and law office technology.

Patrick E. Mahoney is the principal of the Boise, Idaho law firm, Mahoney Law, PLLC, and has practiced law in Idaho for over two decades. His practice is dedicated to helping clients obtain civil justice in all types of medical malpractice cases, birth injury cases including cerebral palsy related lawsuits, serious motor vehicle related personal injury claims, and product liability cases.

Rebecca A. Rainey is a trial lawyer who helps real people find their voice and tell their stories. Becky believes that connectingjuries with her clients' experiences helps people realize the value of the important things in life. She represents plaintiffs in negligence actions, medical malpractice, civil rights, and Title IX sexual assault cases. Becky is a partner at the law firm Fisher Rainey Hudson. She is the current ITLA Amicus Coordinator.

Dr. Karl Zarse is an interventional pain specialist and the founding member of Idaho Spine and Pain. He specializes in non-surgical treatment therapies for neck and back injuries as well as nerve issues that arise after limb injuries. By using a combination of minimally invasive treatment options, physical therapy, and non-opiate medication management we can minimize downtime and help the patients return to work quickly.

Michael J. Hanby II graduated cum laude from Boise State University and received his J.D. from the University of Idaho College of Law. Michael's legal practice focuses on representing plaintiffs in personal injury cases, medical malpractice claims, automobile and trucking accidents and wrongful death cases. He also handles insurance disputes, bad faith insurance claims, and insurance agent errors and omissions.

Regina M. McCrea received her Juris Doctorate with high honors from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock, where she also served as the Editor-in-Chief of the Law Review. In late 2007, Regina joined Owens & Crandall, now known as Owens, McCrea & Linscott. Regina's practice focuses upon civil litigation, primarily in the areas of personal injury, wrongful death, product liability, medical and legal malpractice, insurance, and general civil litigation.

Jeffrey R. Owens is a native to North Idaho, where he graduated from Coeur d'Alene High School in 1995. Currently, Jeff is one of four partners at Owens, McCrea and Linscott, where he specializes in plaintiffs' personal injury and medical malpractice litigation. During the past twelve years, Jeff has worked with over 250 people, helping to resolve their personal injury and medical malpractice claims. Jeff is the current ITLA President.

Irving "Buddy" Paul was a partner at Huppin, Ewing, Anderson and Paul for 30 years. His practice was evenly divided between representing carriers and policyholders. Later, his practice involved insurance law and he frequently performed the duties of an independent adjuster in cases involving property damage, UM, and UIM. He is frequent faculty at legal and insurance CLEs in Idaho and Washington on insurance subjects, including Good and Bad Faith.

The Honorable Greg FitzMaurice graduated from U of I Law in 1978. His early practice involved mainly criminal law. Thereafter his practice involved representation of institutional and corporate clients including forest product entities, utilities, public entities and general rural. He was appointed to the bench in 2015 and serves the Second Judicial District with chambers in Idaho County while serving the remaining counties in the district.
